

Clyde “Eddie” Harris
Athlete, Class of 1966
Inducted into the
Walker High School
Athletic Hall of Fame 2020

Clyde “Eddie” Harris became the first Walker High School athlete to sign a football scholarship after walking on his first year at Louisiana Tech following his career as a Wildcat. A bruising running back and defensive star in high school, Eddie became a three year starter at linebacker at La. Tech. He played on the Division 1A national champs team in 1968, was a Gulf South Conference Champion, and appeared twice in the Grantland Rice Bowl.
